See next page for checklist items to complete.

Important Items for All Seniors

- Males: Register for the Selective Service after your 18th birthday at sss.gov.
- Athletes: Check college eligibility requirements. If you want to play at an NCAA or NAIA school, you must register with their clearinghouse and have your transcript and ACT scores sent. This is YOUR responsibility, not your coach's or your counselor's.
- October 5th: Be part of the Class of 2024 photo at 10:30 AM in upper gym.
- October 5th: Attend senior class meeting in auditorium at 11 AM.
- TBD: Deadline to order cap and gown.
- December 1: Yearbook photo should be emailed from photographer to thurmm@newton.k12.ia.us. After January 1, the yearbook staff will take photos for any seniors that didn't submit a photo.
- March: Dollars for Scholarship Applications are due March 1st. There will be a Scholarship Application Day the week before to give you assistance with the application if needed.
- March: Attend senior class meeting at 10:30 AM to pick up your cap and gown and hear important graduation information.
- April 10th (12:00-3:30 PM): Attend senior interview at DMACC.
- May 1st: Decision Day - Wear a t-shirt representing your post high school journey whether that's a college shirt or a company shirt or whatever suits your plans. We will take a group photo that day.
- May 3rd @ 11:00 am: Attend SENIOR AWARDS ASSEMBLY.
- May 16th: Seniors last school day 🎓 😊 🙌
- May 17th: Graduation Rehearsal 9:00 AM
- May 19th: Graduation Ceremonies 3:00 PM
- June 20th: NHS does not have your DMACC transcript. To transfer college credits from DMACC to another college, you should request your transcript from DMACC after this date if you are taking a second semester course. DMACC won't begin sending them until this date.
